

SOCIAL REVIEW

The afternoon session the delegates were entertained at dinner at the Marietta restaurant. The dinner served at 6 o'clock was one of the pleasing social features of the gathering. Chicken was the main entrée of the bill of fare and Manager Glumicich, of the Marietta, did himself proud in serving the ladies who thronged his restaurant for the event. Victrola music was enjoyed by the guests during the dinner.

Following the dinner the final session of the convention was held at the hall at which officers were elected and other business transacted. The following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. Walls, of Morgantown; secretary, Mrs. Howard Harden, of Fairmont; and prophets, Mrs. Leonard, of Monongah.

The convention was well arranged and carried out in a very pleasing and successful manner. The Fairmont council received the thanks of the many visitors for the capable manner in which the big convention was handled.

Campaign Launched.

Judging from the vigor and good sense with which the leaders of the West Virginia Equal Suffrage Association are launching the campaign for the ratification of the woman suffrage amendment, it will be voted on in November, 1916, it will be a winner. The manner in which the women are organizing would do credit to the seasoned veteran politician of the sterner sex.

Some of the state's most prominent and influential men and women are actively engaged in the campaign. The personnel of the men's advisory board to the Equal Suffrage Association gives an idea of the strong support which will be given the movement from the various professions and political affiliations. Here is a list of the advisory board:

Governor H. D. Hatfield, Charleston.

Ex-Governor W. E. Glasscock, Morgantown.

Judge Frank B. Cox, Morgantown.

Judge J. C. McWhorter, Buckhannon.

George A. Neal, Huntington.

George A. Laughlin, Wheeling.

N. G. Keim, Elkins.

Dr. T. C. Miller, Shepherdstown.

Prof. Walter B. Fairmont.

Dr. Blaine Shaw, Huntington.

Prof. S. McKinnis, Fairmont.

Dr. C. C. Atkinson, Buffalo.

The Rev. E. J. Wooster, Salem.

Judge C. W. Campbell, Huntington.

The Rev. Hyre D. Clark, Mannington.

Wedding of Interest.

A wedding of particular interest to a number of Clarksburg folk was that of Miss Ethyl Coates of Pittsburgh, to

A. H. Tyron, of Cleveland, which took place last month.

Mr. Tyron has charge of the sales department of the American Short-horn Breeders Association, with headquarters in Chicago. He is also manager of the great Tannenhau stock farm, at Willoughby, O. He is a successful business man and recognized as an authority in his line throughout the country.

The bride is a most charming and accomplished young woman, being especially talented along elocutionary and musical lines.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyron are living at 1865 East Eighty-first street, Cleveland, O.

Will Not Meet.

Owing to the Dr. McCusick lectures this week, Mrs. Lee Williams will not meet the Marcato Choral Club until Tuesday of next week.

Pretty Birthday Affair.

Little Miss Mildred Rose Burnside, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Ray Burnside, most delightfully celebrated the fifth anniversary of her birth from 2:30 to 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, October 9, in the home of her parents on Grove avenue in Highland Park, having as her guests a number of her little friends. All kinds of juvenile games were played and the mother of the little hostess attentively and lovingly served delicious refreshments. The first honor was awarded to Tuberia Pivott and the booby prize to Eddie Baker.

The guest list was composed of Thelma Wery, Tuberia Pivott, Celia Burnside, Hearsie Duncan, Anna Hamburger, Julia Romigh, Virginia Rogers, Hite Corter, John Romish, Jr., Eddie Baker, Leoneya Pivott, Hazard Duncan, Junior Burnside, Freddie Wells, Wilson Wells and Joseph Solomon.

Big Birthday Celebration.

A jolly crowd recently gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bean at Rollyson, Braxton county, to help him celebrate his fifty-first birthday. The assemblage enjoyed itself in various ways until a late hour and was then ushered into the dining room where there were two long tables laden with delicious edibles.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Dean and children and Mr. and Mrs. Olen Dean and children. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dean and children of Cedarville; Arthur, Ray, Dan, Otha and Clyde Dean, of Rollyson; Mrs. J. M. Vincent and daughter, of Union Heights; Mrs. Carey Posey and children, of Cogar; Misses Ellen and Maggie Dean, of Rollyson; and Mrs. Tine Flint, of Copen. A number of friends, not members of the family, were also present. There were eighty-three present in all.

Mr. Dean received numerous presents, including a suit of clothes, the gift of his children.

Married at Fairmont.

Mrs. Cora E. Hawken, of Shinnston, and Plummer E. Hill, of Clarksburg, were married at 9 o'clock Monday night at the paragonage of the First Baptist church at Fairmont by the Rev. W. J. Eddy, of that church. After the ceremony the bride and bridegroom departed for points in the East where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mrs. Hill is a prominent and attractive young woman of Shinnston, daughter of the late John M. Coffman, a prominent resident of Sardis district, this county, and sister of former State Senator Charles G. Coffman, of this city. Mr. Hill is a prominent young man of Clarksburg, active in lodge work and associated with the local offices of the Hope Natural Gas Company. On their return from their honeymoon trip they will make their residence in this city.

Prof. M. A. Honline.

Prof. M. A. Honline, of Dayton, who is to appear at the city institute here which will begin October 21, is one of the leaders in religious education in the United States. He has appeared a number of times in West Virginia on the state convention program and at institutes, and always carries his audience by storm.

He is a man of scholarly attainments and pleasing manner. Prof. Honline was the religious educational director of the International Young Men's Christian Association for a number of years and now occupies the chair of religious pedagogy at the Bonabrook Theological Seminary.

Engagement Announced.

A shower was given in honor of Miss Sue McCann in her home at the New Fair Grounds addition Monday evening by the employees of the Watts-Lambert Company. The engagement of Miss Sue McCann and Frank Hursey was announced during the evening and the wedding will be an event of this month. The bride-to-be was presented with a handsome silver comfort, counterpane and blanket set in commemoration of yellow and white to match. Music was rendered during the evening and at the usual hour delicious refreshments were served.

Those present to wish the bride-to-be a long life of happiness were Misses Augusta Chapelle, Elma Harris, Celestie Orner, Maud Fancie, Cora Schaffer, Pearl Pratt, Margaret Dolan, Margaret Post, Grace Merrill, Rose Bumgardner, Elvera Matison, Ruth Bush, Nina Batson, Beulah Lake, Ruth Johnson, Hilda Brooks, Lydia Roy, Mabel Crim, Alice Seas, Nell Quintan, Dea Gwynne, Lydia Walls, and Mrs. Lightner. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley D. Britt, Mrs. J. W. Williams, Mrs. Douglas Williams and Miss Gertrude Williams went to Grafton by train Tuesday morning with the intention of motor to see the baseball game tomorrow.

Invitations Received.

Invitations have been received here as follows:

The Fairmont Chamber of Commerce extends to you a most cordial invitation to be present at, and participate in the sessions of the eleventh annual meeting of the West Virginia Board of Trade in the assembly room of the Wilson building, Fairmont, Y. Va., Tuesday and Wednesday, October 19 and 20, 1915.

A very strong and interesting program has been prepared, touching on questions of vital interest to every industry in the state. Among the speakers secured are Vice-Chairman Edwin R. Hurst and the Hon. William J. Harris, who will address the meeting on the work of the federal trade commission. Other speakers of state and national reputation will also address the meeting.

Our local committee would appreciate an early word from you, stating whether you will be present at the meeting.

Delightful Dance.

Quite a number of guests attended the Columbus day luncheon and dance given under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the St. Mary's high school. A well selected and arranged program of dance music was played by the James Jolly symphony orchestra. The committee in charge of the entertainment was John A. Coughlin, Thomas Y. Ward, J. E. Smith, Percy Byrd, Luke Murray and E. Stringer Bogges.

Sisters Meet.

Mrs. A. B. Rohrbough was hostess of a meeting of the Oberlin Sisters of the United Brethren church Tuesday evening in her home, at Stealy Heights. At the close of the business session refreshments were served.

Parcel Post Show.

Social games and music were the pleasant diversions at a parcel post show given Tuesday evening by Miss Dessie Garrison in her home on Harrison street.

The affair was in honor of Miss Pansy Batton, of Broad Oaks to announce her engagement to Harvey Downing, of Charleston. The marriage will be solemnized sometime during October.

Miss Batton was the recipient of many attractive gifts. At 10 o'clock refreshments were served.

The guest list included Mrs. Cora Williams, Mrs. Ardille Yindom, Mrs. James A. Tucker, Mrs. L. G. Adams and Misses Lillian Mills, Lexie Goodwin, Flora Watson, Edna Gabriel, Annette Richards, Cynthia Boyles, Gay Ash, Bertha Waters, Eva Hess, Annie Rider and Elizabeth Custer.

Marriage Announced.

The marriage of Miss Martha Black to William H. Polling was formally announced Monday, when it was solemnized in New York City. The bride is a daughter of Mr. George Black, of New York City, and a sister of Mrs. John Krohne and Miss Myra Black, of Clarksburg. Mr. and Mrs. Polling will reside in New York.

Suffrage Day.

Circular letters are being sent out over the state from the headquarters of the West Virginia Equal Suffrage Association at Parkersburg, asking that October 27 be Suffrage day in West Virginia. Suffragists are urged to give one dollar of their earnings on that day for the purpose of swelling the campaign fund in our state.

The greatest hindrance to a successful campaign will be lack of funds. Earnest men and women are giving their time and talent to the great cause of equal suffrage, but for success capable organizers and experienced workers must be employed. This all means money and the leaders of the movement believe that the liberty-loving spirit of our citizens will manifest itself as it has in the past whenever the call went for a larger liberty and a stronger democracy. The different leagues will have dollar socials where all can contribute and enjoy an evening's pleasure. Half of the proceeds will go for state work and the remainder being kept in the local treasury.

Circle Meets.

The Wallace Merry Crochet Circle met at the home of Mrs. Herman Shaffer at Wallace Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent very pleasantly in various kinds of crochet work.

Members present were Mrs. Cora Moore, Mrs. Dela McCoy, Mrs. Martha Ashcraft, Mrs. Cora Thompson, Mrs. Alice Stewart, Mrs. Ira Weissel, Mrs. Edna Adams, Mrs. Elia Cross, Mrs. Hattie Moore, Mrs. Lizzie King, Mrs. Beulah Whiteman, Mrs. Emma Martin, Mrs. Ida Shaffer and Mrs. Blanche Morgan, and visitors, Jessie Elison and Mrs. Parrish.

Family Reunion.

A reunion of the Brown family was held at the home of Mr. W. B. Brown near Good-Hope, October 10. Those present were Mr. W. B. Brown, Roy C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Somerville, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelley, Mrs. Amy Bailey, of Towner, Colo.; Wayne, Bard and Andrew Kelley, Mrs. Madge and Ella Nicholson; Vera and Arthur Wright, Clifford Gibson and Mary Somerville; Freeman, Genevieve and Juanita Brown, Lester Somerville, Arnette and Samuel Brown, Les Cottrell, Norval Wolfe, Frenner Cottrell, Okey Floyd, Art Caylor, Maud, Tracy, Harvey and Harley Caylor; Arthur Harce and Opal Kelley, Lena Starkey, Ralph and Dale Myers, Howell Courtney, Maud, Stalla and Carl Studler, and George Coffindaffer.

A fine dinner was served and all enjoyed the day very much.

Miss Addington Entertains.

In honor of Miss Susan Lee McCann, Miss Garret Addington entertained at a prettily appointed 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening. Vowers were laid for a few of her intimate friends. The affair was in a way a pre-nuptial entertainment, as the marriage of Miss McCann to Frank Cole Hursey will be solemnized some time during October.

Ladies Aid Meets.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Protestant church met at the home of Mrs. Harry Fordyce Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Arthur Cather, with scriptural reading and prayer was offered by the Rev. U. V. Morrison. After the business session delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, which were greatly enjoyed by all.

Among the ladies present were Mrs. Harry Fordyce, Mrs. A. A. Cather, Mrs. William Bartlett, Miss Elden McCobb, Miss Ice Ivens, Mrs. J. M. Windon, Mrs. George Randolph, Mrs. Ray Taylor, Mrs. George Duncan, Mrs. Roland, Mrs. A. G. Lamont, Mrs. C. O. Dawson, Miss Ruth Swisher, Master Kenneth Fordyce and the Rev. Mr. Morrison. Master Kenneth Fordyce presided at the piano which added greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Honoring Mrs. Hoffmeister.

A miscellaneous shower was given Wednesday night by Mrs. John A. Flaherty and Miss Rose Judge for Mrs. William Hoffmeister, who was recently married. The guests assembled at the Hoffmeister home on Jarvis street at 8 o'clock and the evening was spent in games and music. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served. The guest list included Mrs. John Whalen, Mrs. Patrick Judge, Mrs. Thomas Hardman, Mrs. P. W. Coughlin, Mrs. William Mulheran, Mrs. John Frye, Mrs. Margaret Healey, Mrs. William Pike and Misses Winifred, Keck, Ella Maloney, Mayne Healey, Ella and Nora Shaughnessy, Julia Flaherty and Nellie G. Coughlin, little Miss Mary Rose Flaherty and the honor guest.

Delegates Named.

At a meeting of the Civic Club at the parish house, Wednesday afternoon, announcement was made of the eleventh annual convention of the West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, at Fairmont, and delegates were appointed. As one delegate to every ten members is allowed to any club, eight delegates and eight alternates were named as follows:

Mrs. Overt Morris treasurer, Mrs. B. F. Robinson secretary, Mrs. H. E. Travis vice president, Mrs. H. W. Harmer, Mrs. S. A. Smith, Mrs. D. W. Jacobs, Mrs. A. L. Roberts and Miss S. Scollay Page.

Alternates.—Mrs. W. Brent Maxwell, Mrs. Paul Robinson, Mrs. Olandus West, Mrs. F. B. Haymaker, Mrs. F. H. White, Mrs. C. E. Lamberd, Mrs. John Craig and Miss Florence Lynch.

All club members whether delegates or not, are cordially invited to be present at the sessions of the convention and to take part in the discussions.

The convention will open formally at 2 p. m. Tuesday and reports from the different clubs will be read. Dr. S. L. Jenson, of Wheeling, health commissioner of West Virginia, will deliver an address on the public health conditions of our state, and the work of his department.

Tuesday evening a general reception to all visitors will be given. Wednesday evening Mrs. Frederick Dow, vice president of the Illinois State Federation and chairman of the resolutions committee of the national federation, will deliver an address on "Business of Serving." Thursday morning she will also speak on the social service work accomplished in the suffrage states.

Mrs. J. Gall Ebert will also be present and speak on the suffrage campaign in West Virginia. Thursday afternoon Andrew Wright Crawford, of Philadelphia, will speak on "State and Municipal Art," the address to be followed by an automobile ride and an art tea at the country club.

Thursday evening the hostess club will present Madame Jennie DeLau, a well known singer, in a musical program. These are the principal events in the convention and it is hoped that all club members will take advantage of this federation, which promises to be of much interest.

If the delegates or alternates desiring to attend will apply to Mrs. H. E. Travis, credential blanks will be mailed to them at once.

Mayor's Party Returns.

Mayor O. H. Gordon and party have returned from Wickham Camp on the South Branch of the Potomac river twelve miles up from Romney. The party traveled by automobile going by way of Oakland and returning by Uniontown, Pa.

The members of the party were Mayor and Mrs. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Pitts and J. B. Blackman of the Harrison county garage.

Meeting Called.

A special meeting of the Clarksburg Woman's Christian Temperance Union has been called for 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. B. McReynolds at the corner of Sycamore and Mulberry streets for the purpose of electing a president. The union will be addressed on that occasion by the Rev. W. B. King and plans for the year's work will be discussed. A full attendance is desired. Those who fail to attend will miss an enjoyable and edifying evening.

Teachers Meet.

Clark district school teachers met in the school house at the Industrial addition Saturday and observed the following program:

General topic—Sanitation.

Music and devotional service.

A report of the physical condition in the schools of Clark district—By each teacher.

How can the teacher improve bad physical conditions in the schools of Clark district?—H. L. Lemaster.

Discuss the value of organized play in the school.—A. B. Clark.

Outline a system for detecting physical defects among school children. (a) For every case of typhoid some one ought to be indicted. Is it true?—Dr. Chester R. Ogden.

Third grade class in hygiene and sanitation.—Miss Thelma Craddock.

Swiger Family Reunion.

As the time grows near for the meeting of the Swiger family in a family reunion at the old Hepzibah church, Sunday, October 17, there seems to be a growing interest manifested on the part of both friends and members of that family. All are working hard to make this a most enjoyable meeting and perhaps none are working harder and more interested than the four oldest living members of the Swiger family, who will attend, viz: John W. Swiger, of Sardis, born December 10, 1822; Isaac Swiger, of Wallace, who is possessed of a most remarkable memory; and George W. Swiger, of Brown, who delights in telling his hunting stories of more than half a century ago, and Calvert Swiger, of Clarksburg.

The program is as follows:

Address—Charles G. Coffman.

Quartet—L. G. Harris, O. L. Swiger, John Morgan and John Knox.

Dinner—Miss Marjorie Stitz and Miss Eva Burka.

Genealogical history of family—Ira L. Swiger.

A panoramic picture by W. A. Amon, of Clarksburg.

Governor a Guest.

Governor H. D. Hatfield, who was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil J. Highland in their home on East Main street Thursday night departed Friday morning on No. 3 for Charleston.

Governor Hatfield arrived in the city Thursday afternoon from Wheeling by way of Fairmont, and was joined here for the dinner hour at the Waldo hotel by James S. Lakin, of Charleston, president of the state board of control, who had just inspected building operations at the Salem and Weston state institutions and who went from this city to Morgantown later to inspect state building operations there.

Mme. Ohrman a Triumph.

Harriet Dillau, president of the Freemont, O. Matinee Musical Club, writes as follows of Mme. Chilion-Ohrman, distinguished American soprano who will appear at 8:15 o'clock Monday evening in the Masonic temple here under the auspices of the Marcato Music Club:

"I cannot express myself in glowing enough terms regarding our opening recital Tuesday afternoon. The consensus of opinion is that it was the finest thing we ever had."

Mme. Ohrman simply electrified the audience, both by her personal appearance and by her wonderful voice. It is so gratifying to hear the comments people are making regarding her exquisite voice, down even to the perfect hang of her lovely gown. You cannot imagine how the women appreciated that Paris creation. Her art, her grace, her beautiful face and most wonderful voice are topics of conversation. She was a triumph."

Mr. Deitch came in for their share of the honors and were highly praised for their work. It is unusual to hear so much about an accompanist, but our people thought him wonderful.

I simply do not know how to say anything more than these two great artists.

Delightfully Entertained.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ridenour at 141 Euclid avenue, Wednesday afternoon, quite a crowd of small boys and girls attended a birthday party given in honor of their daughter, Esther Louise's seventh birthday.

The afternoon was spent in games and music. Miss Louise received many beautiful and useful presents. At 4:30 the guests were invited to the dining room where refreshments were served. At a late hour they all departed wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Those present were Elizabeth O-

Honor Everywhere for Edison's Genius

Edison Week, October 18th to October 23d

The whole country will be celebrating Mr. Edison's great achievements next week.

Just 10 months after the greatest fire in the history of New Jersey, he has rebuilt a group of gigantic factories that are capable of 100 per cent increased production in Diamond Disc Phonographs and Records.

The New Edison Diamond Disc Phonograph is one of Mr. Edison's greatest inventions, the perfect musical instrument, resulting from four years' continuous research by the master inventor.

All music lovers who have heard of this great musical triumph should hear the New Edison next week.

Special Concerts Every Day

We have arranged a special concert for each day of Edison Week—a choice program from the great library of Edison Records, the best in the world of music.

Come in and hear the New Edison. Note how perfectly it reproduces the artist's music. Absolutely true to the original—human, life-like, natural. It is the laboratory re-creation of music as opposed to manufactured music. It is the storehouse into which the world's best music has been poured. A mere touch releases and you hear it—just as it was sung or played by the artist.

Come In

No charge for seats. Come to these special concerts Saturday evening or morning or afternoon next week. Bring your friends. No obligation. You will not be asked to purchase. Nearly everywhere in America people will be bowing next week to Mr. Edison's genius. We give you the opportunity to hear the result of many years of his work and profound study. He has given and is still giving most of his time and attention to the Diamond Disc. It is his pet invention.
